- (1) Any member who wishes to resign from the Society shall give two weeks' notice in writing to the Secretary and shall pay up all dues.
- (2) Any member who fails to comply with the rules of the Society or has acted in a manner to bring disrepute upon the Society may be expelled or suspended for a period of time as the Committee deems fit. Before the Committee expels or suspends the member, the member shall be informed of the grounds for such expulsion or suspension in writing and be given an opportunity to explain and absolve himself in person. Such suspension or expulsion shall be enforced, unless otherwise reversed by a general meeting upon appeal by the said member.

ARTICLE VIII – GENERAL MEETING

- (1) The supreme authority of the Society is vested in the General Meeting of the total voting members. At least one-half of the total voting membership of the Society or twice the total number of members of the Committee members, whichever is the lesser must be present at a general meeting for its proceedings to be valid and to constitute a quorum.
- (2) If half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting shall be postponed to a date (not exceeding 30 days) to be decided by the Committee; and if a quorum is not present half an hour after the time appointed for the postponed meeting, the members present shall have power to proceed with the business of the day but they shall not have power to alter the rules of the Society or to make decisions affecting the whole membership.

- (3) An Annual General Meeting of the Society shall be held as soon as possible after the close of each financial year but not later than 30th June on a date and at a time and place to be decided by the Committee. The business of the annual general meeting shall be:-
 - (a) To receive the Committee's report on the working of the Society during the previous two years;
 - (b) To receive the treasurer's report and the audited accounts of the Society for the previous two years;
 - (c) To elect a Committee once in two years and to appoint Auditors once in two years;
 - (d) To deal with such other matters as may be deemed fit by the general meeting.
- (4) The Secretary shall send to all members at least 7 days before the meeting a notice stating the date, time, place of meeting and an agenda including copies of minutes of meeting, reports and audited accounts of the Society for the previous year. Copies of these documents will also be made available at the registered address or place of meeting of the Society for the perusal of members.
- (5) An Extraordinary General Meeting of the Society shall be convened:-
 - (a) whenever the Committee deems it desirable, or
 - (b) at the joint request in writing of 1/5 of the total voting members, stating the objects and reasons for such meeting.
- (6) An Extraordinary General Meeting requisitioned by members shall be convened for a date within thirty days of the receipt of such requisition.
- (7) Notice and agenda for an Extraordinary General Meeting shall be forwarded by the Secretary to all members at least 14 days before the date fixed for the meeting.
- (8) Article VIII (1) and VIII (2) in this constitution regarding the quorum and the postponement of an Annual General Meeting shall apply also to an Extraordinary General Meeting, but with the proviso that if no quorum is present after half an hour from the time appointed for a postponed Extraordinary General Meeting requisitioned by members, the ~~Extraordinary~~ Meeting shall be cancelled, and no extraordinary general meeting shall be requisitioned for the same purpose until after the lapse of at least six months from the date thereof.
- (9) The Secretary shall send to all members a copy of the minutes of the Annual General Meeting and Extraordinary General Meeting as soon as possible after the meeting.

- (2) The Office-bearers of the Society and every officer performing executive functions in the Society shall be Malaysian citizens.
- (3) Names for the above offices shall be proposed and seconded and election once every two years will be by a simple majority vote of the members at the Annual General Meeting. All the office-bearers shall be eligible for re-election every two years.
- (4) The function of the Committee is to organise and supervise the day-to-day activities of the Society and to make decisions on matters affecting its running within the general policy laid down by the general meeting. The Committee may not act contrary to the expressed wishes of the general meeting without prior reference to it and shall always remain subordinate to the general meeting. It shall furnish a report to each annual general meeting on its activities during the previous two years.
- (5) The Committee shall meet at least once every three months, and 7 days notice of each meeting shall be given to the members. The President acting alone, or not less than four of its members acting together may call for a meeting of the Committee to be held at any time. At least one half of the Committee members must be present for its proceedings to be valid and to constitute a quorum.
- (6) Where any urgent matter requiring the approval of the Committee arises and it is not possible to convene a meeting, the Secretary may obtain such approval by means of a circular letter. The following conditions must be fulfilled before a decision of the Committee is deemed to have been obtained:-
 - (a) The issue must be clearly set out in the circular and forwarded to all members of the Committee;
 - (b) At least one half of the members of the Committee must indicate whether they are in favour or against the proposal, and
 - (c) The decision must be by a majority vote.

Any decision obtained by circular letter shall be reported by the Secretary to the next Committee meeting and recorded in the minutes thereof.

- (7) Any member of the Committee who fails to attend three consecutive meetings of the Committee without satisfactory explanation shall be deemed to have resigned from the Committee
- (8) In the event of the death or resignation of a member of the Committee the candidate who received the next highest number of votes at the previous election for the post affected shall be invited to fill the vacancy. If there is no such candidate or if such candidate declines to accept office, the Committee shall have the power to co-opt any other member of the Society to fill the vacancy until the next election at the annual general meeting.

- (9) The Committee shall give instructions to the Secretary and other officers for the conduct of the affairs of the Society. It may appoint such organisers and such staff as it deems necessary. It may suspend or dismiss any organiser or member of the staff for neglect of duty, dishonesty, incompetence, refusal to carry out the decisions of the Committee, or for any other reason which it deems good and sufficient in the interest of the Society.

- (10) The Committee shall have power to appoint sub-committees for the furtherance of the objects of the Society as it may deem fit and to delegate to sub-committees such powers as it may consider necessary and expedient and to withdraw from such sub-committees all or any of the powers so delegated and revoke all such appointments.

ARTICLE X - DUTIES OF OFFICE-BEARERS

- (1) The President shall during his term of office, preside at all general and all meetings of the Committee and shall be responsible for the proper conduct of all such meetings.
