4. Paediatric - Haemodynamic Monitoring in The Critically Ill Child

(Limited to 32 - 36 participants only)

Chairpersons: Tang Swee Fong, Gan Chin Seng

Venue: Sarawak Room

Circulatory instability and shock is not uncommon in children and poses a challenging management situation. The current guidelines for shock focuses mainly on early recognition and treatment but do not specify the type of monitoring technology that should be used in various circumstances. Haemodynamic monitoring should ideally be able to accurately determine not only the severity of circulatory derangements, but also the underlying pathophysiological mechanisms, to enable clinicians to choose the most appropriate therapy. There are a wide range of techniques and devices available to monitor haemodynamic status and an increasing number is available for use in children. This workshop will cover the basis and basics of haemodynamic monitoring as well as the use and limitations of various methods.

IFAD Mini Workshop in conjunction with ASMIC 2024

We cordially invite colleagues to join us at the inaugural International Fluid Academy Day Malaysia. The goals of International Fluid Academy (IFA) workshops are to help participants gain an in-depth understanding of fluid therapy and its consequences in the care of critically ill patients and foster collaboration with colleagues across the IFA network. This one-day programme (IFADmini) will cover all aspects of fluid management including fluid stewardship, phases of fluid management, monitoring devices and goals of treatment. This highly interactive day includes the opportunity to discuss key topics with international and regional experts and speakers.

Our honourable speakers and facilitators will be:

Manu Malbrain (Poland)

Adrian Wong (United Kingdom)

Olusegun Olusanya (United Kingdom)

Siddharta Manggala (Indonesia)

Faisal Muchtar (Indonesia)

Ismail Tan Mohd Ali Tan (Malaysia)

Nor'azim Mohd Yunus (Malaysia)

Poh Yee Han (Malaysia)

Tentative plenary and symposium topics are as follows:

- The 7Ds of fluid stewardship - how do we break bad habits and improve clinical practice and patient outcomes through a multidisciplinary team approach.
- Test your knowledge of fluid management in our International Fluid Academy and a chance to win a prize.
- What are the best tools to help guide management - arterial line? Point-of care ultrasound? Body impedance monitoring? Join the discussion with our panel and share your thoughts and experiences.
- Regional experts from various specialties will share their own experiences on how to improve fluid practices in their own institution. Learn top tips on how to actually make it happen in your department!
